

COOPERATION AGREEMENT BETWEEN
SIDI MOHAMED BEN ABDELLAH UNIVERSITY OF FEZ (MOROCCO)
AND
BOLU ABANT İZZET BAYSAL UNIVERSITY (TÜRKİYE)

Recognizing the mutual benefits to be gained through a cooperative program promoting scholarly activities and international understanding, Bolu Abant İzzet Baysal University, Türkiye and Sidi Mohamed Ben Abdellah University of Fez, Morocco have agreed to enter into this non-binding memorandum of understanding ("MoU") that enables them to work together in the pursuit of the objectives set out herein;

GENERAL TERMS

Article 1:

- a) Both parties agree to cooperate to the mutual enrichment of their heritage and the development of training and research in areas of common interest. They will promote within the framework of the regulations:
- Joint-research and/or teaching programs;
 - Exchange of students and academic, administrative and technical staff;
 - In general, the organization of any kind of collaboration that could be useful to achieving these goals.

TERMS RELATIVE TO SETTING UP JOINT-RESEARCH PROGRAMS

Article 2:

The contracting parties shall encourage:

- a) The creation of joint research programs,
- b) Exchange of teachers, researchers, technical, administrative staff and PhD students,
- c) Organization of periodic confrontations regarding ongoing research,
- d) Establishment of co-supervision of theses in compliance with the regulations of the two parties,
- e) Promotion of seminars and symposia on pertinent research themes.

Article 7:

- a) Each institution should ensure that students have sufficient resources to cover the living and travel expenses and appropriate social coverage (health, accident liability) in the host country.
- b) The costs of travel, accommodation, catering, and pocket money remain the responsibility of students. Nevertheless, the institutions allow students to benefit from university services (restaurants, library...).
- c) Applications for student exchange must be made to the host university two months prior to arrival.
- d) The students attend courses of the host university to obtain the diploma of the home institution. Responsible professors and students agree on the content and duration of the educational program. The two institutions agree to set up a system of grades' transfer so that the study period can be recognized and integrated into the initial curriculum of the student.
- e) In the case of setting up double degrees, the precise terms should be established in advance and should be officially fixed. For joint supervision, a special agreement must be signed.

THE IMPLEMENTATION AND FOLLOW UP OF THE AGREEMENT

Article 8:

- a) The implementation of this agreement will be the subject of an annual or multiannual programming jointly developed by the two universities and consulted whenever they deem necessary. Each program of cooperation will be the subject of a specific agreement in which obligations and responsibilities of the two parties should be clearly and precisely defined as well as terms of conditions under which the planned activities will be developed jointly.

FINANCING MODALITIES

Article 9:

- a) In order to achieve the objectives defined above, the contracting universities should implement actions foreseen by the available means and in accordance with the regulations of each state.
- b) The contracting universities determine by mutual agreement the terms, procedures and the adequate funding to be negotiated and determined periodically.
- c) Funding needed to carry out the identified actions should be solicited through programs implemented by various national and international agencies (Ministry, embassies, European Commission, international organizations, local authorities...).

SETTLEMENT OF DIFFERENTS

ARTICLE 10:

In the event of difficulties in the implementation of this framework agreement, the parties undertake to attempt to resolve the dispute amicably by direct conciliation.

VALIDITY OF THIS AGREEMENT

Article 11:

- This Agreement is written in English. It shall be valid on the date of signature by representatives of both universities. It is valid for a period of five years (5 years) automatically renewable.
- The revising of this Agreement may be requested at any time by one of the contracting universities and carried out by joint agreement of these universities. Besides, this Agreement may be terminated by joint agreement of both universities and notification should be present six (6) months by one of the two parties, and without affecting any of the cooperation actions already underway.
